

István Szőke

István Szőke is the managing partner at CVC Capital Partners overseeing CVC Capital Partners' private equity activities in the CEE and MEA regions. Prior to joining CVC Capital Partners, István Szőke was a partner at Advent International and prior to his experience in Advent, István Szőke was a founding managing partner of Eastern Heritage Capital, a Swiss asset management firm.

István Szőke is a graduate of the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania where he obtained an MBA (with concentration in finance). Prior to that, he graduated from the Budapest University of Economic Sciences, where he studied Business Administration (with concentration in finance).

The activity of István Szőke performed outside Comarch S.A. is not competitive in relation to the activity performed within Comarch S.A. István Szőke: (i) is not involved in a competitive company as a partner in a civil partnership, commercial partnership or capital company, (ii) is not involved in a competitive legal person as a member of its corporate body.